Crl.M.C.No. 1179 of 2004

ORDER

Heard counsel for the petitioners. It is submitted by the counsel for the petitioners that the petitioners and the second respondent are in Gulf; that the matter is already settled, as evidenced by Annexure A2, but when the matter goes back, the case will lie over in the register of long pending cases and the parties will not be able to settle the matter either and that therefore, the proceedings before this Court may not be disposed of.

2. I am of the view that without prejudice to the petitioners approaching this Court afresh, if at all need arises, this Crl.M.C. can be disposed of inasmuch as the parties have already settled the matter, as evidenced by Annexure A2.

This Crl.M.C. is, hence, dismissed without prejudice to the petitioners approaching this Court again, if at all necessity arises.
